FSU Department of Modern Languages & Linguistics Major Requirements Checklist:
Middle Eastern Studies Major

The Middle Eastern Studies major requires 54 credit hours from participating departments and language courses. Students are required to take Middle East Survey (ASH 3230), a three semester hour course. From the 54 total credit hours, students are to take a minimum of thirty-six semester hours from among those area-specific upper-level courses listed for their major track. The hours should be distributed among at least three departments. Fifteen of these hours must be at the 3000/4000-level, in addition to the survey course. Fifteen hours of coursework are required in a relevant area language (Arabic, Hebrew, Turkish or any other Middle East language that might be offered on campus in the future). To encourage the achievement of language proficiency, language coursework hours taken beyond the 15-hour foreign language requirement may be counted towards the required 36 hours for the major. A minor is not required for this major.
